Combining the experience acquired by our Partners in Big Four firms (our 3 Partners previously worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers), DVA Consultores was founded in 2007 as an answer to a growing demand of highly qualified tax, accounting and business advisory.

In DVA, we know the importance that today have the tax matters in the life of a company. For that reason, we have developed a Firm of tax specialists that is able to solve the most complex tax issues. Our team consists of 3 Partners and 15 specialists.

Notwithstanding our recent constitution, DVA Consultores is a preferred provider of tax consulting and business advisory for the most important business organizations in Bolivia, with very important distinctive features. We are independent, creative, modern and flexible.

We offer a wide range of services: tax consulting, accounting services, advice on mergers and acquisitions, international taxation, etc. We provide advanced, innovative and highly specialized solutions, which focuses on the objective of adding value to our customers by providing reliable and personalized services of high technical quality.
