Vaughan Avocats is a tax and law firm located in Paris, Toulouse and Sophia Antipolis.

With 7 partners all recognized specialists in their fields, 2 directors and 20 associates; we have doubled in size since our creation in 2005. Our expert practice areas include:

- Corporate law (companies, securities, mergers and acquisitions, project and asset financing).
- Restructuration business.
- International mobility (tax, social security, employment law issues; compensation and benefits, equity plans, international mobility policies).
- Taxation (Personal estate taxation, real estate taxation, international tax law, assistance with tax audits and disputes. Customs and Excise. Mergers and acquisitions, private equity transactions).

Catering to the interaction between the various disciplines of law that apply to business is at the heart of our approach. We handle multi country projects on a regular basis, from international taxation, international management of HR to international investments and acquisitions, development, construction contracts and dispute resolution. Our international experience, which stems from years of practice of international projects, nurtures our adaptability and responsiveness and also steps up our creativity in terms of practical and practicable solutions.

We are proud to represent over 40 French or non French controlled major groups and a number of fast growing businesses. The long term confidence of our clients is our reward.
